

1. Two Ways “they knew not which of the two to take”

A man in a white robe led them into [within the compass of] a _____.

The shepherds bid us beware of the _____.

They also gave us a _____.

Delivered by a shining one with a _____.

2. Atheist “a man with his back toward Zion”

“There is no such a place as you dream of _____.”

Christian: “But there is _____.”

3. Enchanted Ground “tended to make one drowsy”

Hopeful: “Sleep is _____.” (Ecc. 5:12)

Christian: “Let us not _____.” (1 Thes. 5:6)

4. Good Discourse “to prevent drowsiness in this place”

Christian asks about Hopeful's conversion experience.

“I thought I must endeavor to _____.”

“My now reforming will not _____.”

Faithful told me I must “obtain the _____
_____.”

“He gave me a book of Jesus inditing.”

indite = put into writing, Psalm 45:1 (KJV) translating a Hebrew word meaning more accurately “overflowing.”

“So I continued praying until _____.”

5. Ignorance “How stands it between God and your soul now?”

Ignorance: I think of God and Heaven.

Christian: So do _____.

Ignorance: But I think of them, and desire them.

Christian: So do many that _____.

Ignorance: But I think of them, and leave all for them.

Christian: To leave all is _____.

Ignorance: My heart tells me so.

Christian: The wise man says, _____
_____.

Christian seems very harsh with this man, but notice what his faith is in:

Ignorance: I shall be justified before God, through his

6. Discussion about Ignorance “I much pity this poor man”

How do such people respond to conviction of sin and fear of judgment?

Christian: They seek to _____.