

How Blessed is the Righteous Man PSALM 1

1. How bles - sed is the right - eous
2. But in the per - fect law of
3. He like a firm - ly plant - ed
4. Lord, give to us this bles - sed -
5. For Lord, You know the righ - teous

man, Who does not walk with wick - ed God, In this his heart finds great de - tree By streams of wat - er nour - ished ness! O plant us firm - ly in Your way, But fruit - less ways of wick - ed

men; Nor in the path of sin - ners light; And with this law his soul is there, Will in his seas - on bear sweet Word, That we may find our souls' de - men Will per - ish in the Judg - ment

stand; nor to the scof - fer's seat de - scend.
fed; He med - i - tates both day and night.
fruit; In time of drought will not de - spair.
light In sweet com - mun - ion with our Lord.
Day, With all their scorn and pride and sin.

WORDS: Karen Diachenko. All rights reserved. Used by permission.

MUSIC: A. Williams' Supplement to Psalmody, 1780, arr. Edward Miller, 1731-1807.